

ACE and the ESWP Invite You to Attend a Luncheon Benefit for the ACE Mentor Program

Featuring
CHARLIE BACON
CHAIRMAN & CEO, LIMBACH FACILITY SERVICES

"ENERGY EFFICIENCY, GREEN JOB CREATION AND FUTURE WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT"

Monday, March 22, 2010

11:30 Registration & Networking; 12 noon Luncheon; Presentation to Follow

Charlie Bacon is the Chairman & CEO of Limbach Facility Services LLC. Prior to joining Limbach, Charlie was the President & CEO of the North and South American operations of Bovis Lend Lease, one of the largest general contractors and construction managers both within the USA and globally. External to the business, Mr. Bacon supports the education and development of children and serves on a number of Boards: the Boy Scouts of America, Junior Achievement Program and the ACE Mentor Program.

The ACE Mentor Program is a national non-profit 501(c)3 organization created to introduce high school students to career opportunities in the Architecture, Construction and Engineering industry. For more information on the program in general or ways to get involved visit www.acementor.org or contact us at info@acementor.org.

Mr. Bacon has previously met with key White House staff members, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of Agriculture to discuss this very topic.
